

First, we both go out your way and the vibe is feelin' strong And what's small turned to a friendship, a friendship turned to a bond

And that bond'll never be broken, the love will never get lost
And when brotherhood come first, then the line'll never be crossed

Established it on our own when that line had to be drawn
And that line is what we reached, so remember me when I'm gone

hi kus!

Thank you for being my "realest friends" for the last at least seven years. It feels like more than a brotherhood. I hope this bond lasts until the day we leave this world. It's going to be a long journey hanging out, playing badminton, Valo, CS, and doing all the random things we've been through together. Keep chasing your dreams. I believe in you, and I know you can make them happen. Let's make our dreams come true and build a business together someday, haha.

No goodbyes here, just a "see you again."

Take care bro until that day comes, -jo
